ADMISSION.

CANDIDATES for admission to the Freshman Class are required to pass a written examination in the following books and subjects:—

Latin Grammar, including Prosody—Harkness, Allen and Greenough, or Andrews and Stoddard.

Harkness's Latin Prose Composition, Part II., or an equivalent.

Cicero—Seven Orations.

Virgil—the Bucolics, the first two Georgics, and the first six books of the Æneid.

Sallust—Catilinarian War, or Cæsar, four books.

The English method of pronouncing Latin is preferred.

Greek Grammar—Crosby, Hadley, or Goodwin.

Jones's Greek Prose Composition, twenty exercises.

Xenophon—Anabasis, four books, or one hundred pages of Goodwin's Greek Reader.

Homer—Iliad, three books.

Ancient Geography.

Arithmetic, including the Metric System.

Algebra—Loomis's, to Quadratic Equations.

Geometry—Loomis's, four books.

English Grammar, including Orthography and Orthoepy.

Modern Geography.

French—Otto's Grammar, Part I.

To those who are unable to pass the entrance examination in French, a second opportunity will be offered at the end of Freshman year.

The examination in the common English branches will be insisted on with no less strictness than in the Ancient Languages and the Mathematics.

Real equivalents will be accepted instead of the text-books named. But prose will not be accepted as a substitute for poetry.

Candidates for the Scientific Course are required to pass examination in all the foregoing subjects, except the Greek, and the Georgics and Bucolics.

Candidates for higher standing are examined as above, and also in the studies gone over by the class to which they may desire admission. For the particular books in Greek, Latin, or Modern Languages studied by each class, equivalent amounts may be offered from other books in the same language.

The stated times for the examination to begin are 9 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday of the week preceding Commencement, and the last Tuesday of the following vacation (June 20th and September 4th, 1876), and the examination in each case will continue two days. But in special cases, candidates may be examined and admitted at other times in the year. For such private examination, application must previously be made in writing. No admission to the Senior Class, however, is allowed later than the beginning of the second term.

Those who apply for examination on the days above named, are required to present themselves punctually at the appointed hour, at Walker Hall.

Before examination, the candidate must exhibit satisfactory testimonials that he sustains a good moral character. If he has been a member of any other College, he will be expected to present a certificate of regular dismission.

No one can be admitted to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fifteenth year; and no one to an advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age.

Information in relation to rooms or boarding places may be obtained by applying to the College Janitor, Lansford Gates, No. 20 North College.

SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

The general course given above in detail is so arranged, that a three years' Scientific Course is formed by omitting the Greek entirely, and the Latin after the first term of Freshman year, and taking the optional studies in Science and Modern Languages. The degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred on any student who has satisfactorily completed this course.

PARTIAL COURSE.

Persons, who are unable to pursue the full course for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, are permitted to enjoy the privileges of the Institution, and carry forward such studies as they may select, when approved by the Faculty. To such, at the end of their course, a certificate of their attainments will be given on application to the President.

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates who wish to pursue a more extended course of study in any department, can do so, by making arrangements with the College for that purpose.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts in course, must be graduates of at least three years' standing, and must have spent at least two years in professional and other liberal studies. In ordinary cases, they must be recommended by the Faculty.

Graduates entitled to the degree and wishing to obtain it, should send their request to the Faculty, with appropriate vouchers, on or before the twentieth day of June.

EXERCISES.

There are either three Recitations, or two Recitations and two Lectures daily, excepting Wednesday and Saturday, when one Recitation is omitted.

On Wednesday afternoon, there are general rhetorical exercises in the College Chapel, except during the latter part of the Summer term.

There are also weekly rhetorical exercises for each class. The Seniors and Juniors have compositions, original declamations, or debates; the Sophomores and Freshmen written translations, declamations or compositions. For the declamations preparation is made by private rehearsal before the Professor of Rhetoric or the Instructor in Elocution.

Biblical instruction is given to each class during some portion of the College course.

There is public worship in the College Church, every Sabbath, and prayers in the Chapel every week-day morning. Every Thursday evening, there is preaching or some other religious exercise, which the students are invited to attend. There are also class prayer meetings regularly on Sabbath evenings.

LECTURES.

Lectures are delivered during the year—

By the President, on Psychology, Moral Philosophy, and History of Philosophy, to the Seniors.

By Professor Shepard, on Mineralogy, Astrolithology, and Conchology, to the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores.

By Professor Tyler, on Greek Literature, to the Juniors and Sophomores.

By Professor Crowell, on the Latin Language and Literature, to the Juniors and Sophomores.

By Professor Hitchcock, on Anatomy and Physiology, and Laws of Health, to the Juniors and Freshmen.

By Professor Montague, on the Romanic Languages, and French Literature, to the Juniors and Sophomores.

By Professor Mather, on Goethe and Schiller, The Greek Drama and Greek Historians, to the Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen.

By Professor Harris, on Chemistry, to the Juniors and Sophomores.

By Professor Emerson, on Geology, Palæontology, and Zoölogy, to the Seniors.

By Professor Root, on Natural Philosophy, to the Juniors.

By Professor Burgess, on History and Political Economy, to the Seniors.

By Rev. Dr. Burr, on the Scientific Evidences of Religion, to the Seniors.

EXAMINATIONS.

1. Oral examinations of all the classes, at or near the close of each term, on the studies of the term.

2. Written examinations of all the classes, either on the completion of studies, or near the close of each year, on the studies of the year.

A record is kept by the Faculty, of the attainments and deportment of every student, and each student's standing on the merit roll is made known to him, or sent to his parent (or guardian) at the discretion of the Faculty, near the beginning of every term. Information concerning proficiency and deportment is communicated, at other times, to the parent or guardian when requested or when deemed necessary.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library and Reading Room are open every day (Sundays and holidays excepted), from nine to half-past eleven o'clock, A. M., and from half-past one to four o'clock, P. M. The Libraries of the two Literary Societies have been incorporated with that of the College and are accessible only to members of the societies. The Social Union Reading Room, No. 1, North College, is open every day except Sunday.

SCIENTIFIC COLLECTIONS.

The Cabinets of Natural History consist of large and well-characterized collections for the study of Geology, Mineralogy, Botany, and Zoology. A portion of these Cabinets is made up of the following unique collections: The Hitchcock Ichnological Museum, the Shepard Collection of Meteorites, the Gilbert Museum of Indian Antiquities, and the Nineveh Mural Slabs, Cylinders and SEALS. The Cabinets are open to the public each week day, from ten to eleven o'clock, A. M., and from three to four o'clock, P. M., when the custodians will be in attendance.

GALLERY OF ART.

This room, recently finished and furnished, contains a large and carefully selected collection of casts of ancient and modern statuary, and photographs, mounted and under glass, illustrating the architecture, sculpture and painting of Europe. The Gallery is open to the public each week day, at the same hours as the Cabinets of the Scientific Collections.

THE GYMNASIUM.

This building is open during the day-time, for voluntary exercise by the members of College; and at an appointed hour, each class is required to exercise under the direction of the Professor of Hygiene.

The class exercises are open to the public.

EXPENSES.

The following are the principal necessary expenses, exclusive of vacations:

General Term Bill, including Tuition, Library, Gymnasium, and all ordinary incidentals, per year,	$100.00	$100.00
Room Rent in College from $6.00 to $15.00 per term,	18.00	45.00
Room Rent in private houses, per year,	40.00	60.00
Fuel and Lights, from $12.00 to $18.00,	12.00	18.00
Board from $3.50 per week to $5.50, making per year of thirty-eight weeks,	133.00	209.00

In clubs, of which there are several, students secure very good board for about $3.25 per week.

The expenses for Room Rent, Fuel and Lights, are estimated on the supposition that two students occupy the same room. For a few choice rooms both in College and in town a higher rent is charged.

There are some expenses which result from taxes voluntarily imposed by the classes or societies. These and expenses for furniture, stationery, etc., will vary according to circumstances and the character and habits of the student.

PAYMENTS.

One-half of the annual charges is due on the first of October, and is to be paid within two weeks thereafter. The balance becomes due April 15th, and is to be paid before June 1st.

A bond, with satisfactory surety for the payment of all the College bills, must be given by each student to the Treasurer, at the commencement of the term when he enters.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The College has a fund of seventy-five thousand dollars, the income of which is appropriated to aid young men who are preparing for the Christian ministry, and need assistance. Meritorious students of this class, to a number not exceeding forty-two, can receive each a scholarship, which is sufficient to cancel the general Term Bill. The same class of students ordinarily obtain from the American Educational Society about one hundred dollars annually.

Scholarships have been founded by the State of Massachusetts, by individuals, and by College classes. These endowments are intended to assist those who need pecuniary aid, and most of them are designed only for those of superior scholarship. The names of donors, and the annual incomes of their respective gifts, are as follows:

Massachusetts, three scholarships, forty-five dollars each.

Rev. Dr. Moore, the first President of the College, three, one hundred and forty dollars each.

Samuel A. Hitchcock, of Brimfield, fifty, one hundred dollars each. The fund supporting these scholarships is temporarily non-paying. Therefore they are not awarded the present year.

Asahel Adams, of North Brookfield, three, forty dollars each.

Samuel D. Warren, of Boston, two, seventy dollars each.

Mrs. Sarah Tuttle, of Wayland, sixty dollars in gold.

Levi Russell, of Hadley, sixty dollars in gold.

Isaac D. Farnsworth, of Boston, two, one hundred and five dollars each.

Enos Dickinson, of Amherst, seventy dollars.

John C. Newton, of Worcester, seventy dollars.

George M. Ives, of Stafford Springs, Ct., one hundred and five dollars.

James H. Newton, of Holyoke, seventy dollars.

Charles Merriam, of Springfield, one hundred and forty dollars.

Joseph Carew, of South Hadley Falls, seventy dollars.

J. H Bigelow, of Worcester, thirty-five dollars.

Henry N. Bigelow, of Clinton, seventy-five dollars.

Birdseye Blakeman, of New York, seventy-five dollars.

Mrs. C. A. Johnson, of Boston, fifty dollars.

James S. Seymour, late of Auburn, N. Y., five scholarships of sixty dollars each.

Class of 1822, seventy dollars, by Wells Southworth, of New Haven, Ct.

Class of 1823, seventy dollars, by Alvin J. Johnson, of New York.

Class of 1830, one hundred and twenty dollars by Rev. James L. Merrick, late of South Amherst.

Class of 1831, seventy dollars.

Heman Humphrey Scholarship, seventy dollars, by a member of the Class of 1834.

Class of 1836, forty dollars.

Class of 1836, ninety dollars, by Alexander H. Bullock, of Worcester.

Class of 1839, seventy dollars.

Class of 1841, seventy dollars, by George Cook, of Keene, N. H.

Class of 1849, seventy dollars.

Class of 1850, seventy dollars, by J. J. H. Gregory, of Marblehead.

Class of 1855, seventy dollars.

Class of 1855, two prize scholarships of seventy dollars each.

Class of 1857, eighty dollars.

Class of 1860, sixty dollars.

Class of 1865, sixty dollars.

Class of 1871, seventy dollars.

Several other Class Scholarships have been established in part, the endowments for which are not yet placed in the College Treasury.

The incomes from the above scholarships are credited on the general term bills of those to whom they are awarded, and the excess, if any, is paid when the bills become due and payable. Applications for aid should be made to the President in writing, with a statement of pecuniary circumstances. No one is entitled to a scholarship till he has been in College at least one term, and no scholarship is given to any one who does not sustain a good moral character.
